Korean Language Program

The International Language Institute at Kangwon National University offers a Korean Language Learning Program for non-native speakers.

Our program is designed for foreigners who want to apply for undergraduate or graduate universities in Korea. It is combined with a course study of the basic textbooks and a practical program of various cultural experiences, which is desirable for both foreign students to adjust to the Korean lifestyle and overseas Koreans to have better understanding of Korean culture along with learning the standard Korean.

Our program is offered on a year-round basis, so you may choose to begin your studies when it is most convenient for you. The classes are divided into six levels, and all new students will take a placement test to study in a suitable class.
